

As we mature in life, each of us must answer potentially life defining and life altering questions. "What is my purpose?" "What gifts and talents do I have to contribute to the world?" "How do I make my hopes, dreams and wishes a living reality?" Each one of these inquiries could take a lifetime to discover, unless we have both the inner and outer information, tools and skills to search for and, to discover the true essence and meaning of life. If you are among the many who have asked or, are searching for answers to these questions, we encourage you to consider the field of Spiritual Life Coaching. In your process of finding your own answers, our curriculum is designed for you to develop the necessary skills that will ultimately guide you in supporting others in their search. We believe, as you learn you grow. As you grow you teach.

An Invitation From Our Founder

Each day, I receive letters from around the globe, from individuals, like yourself, who are ready to live a more meaningful and productive life. Many have found that traditional jobs and definitions of success are no longer meaningful or fulfilling. Quite often I respond to these seekers by saying, "Begin Within! Your purpose gave birth to you!" For many, this statement has very little meaning because few of us have been given the tools or, educated about the process necessary for self-discovery, self-realization or self-development. This process occurs from the inside out. The Inner Visions Institute for Spiritual Development was developed in response to the thousands who said they were ready to learn about and use the tools.

In the many lectures and workshops I have been blessed to offer, I often say to people, "Tell your story because your story will heal you and, it will heal someone else." Each life is a story filled with the drama, surprises and mysteries that make living a wonderful and interesting journey. Each of our stories, when told with understanding and compassion holds the key to our potential gifts, talents and our purpose. Through exploring and learning to understand the complexities of your story, using spiritual principles as a foundation of your awareness, you become empowered. You become inspired! You find your purpose and are prepared to share your authentic self with the world. If you have a story, then you have the potential to be a healer, a teacher, a more conscious, productive individual and, a Spiritual Life Coach.

The world is waiting for who you are! And, so are you! If you are ready to find your purpose, to understand yourself, to be at peace with your life and all of your experiences, I encourage you to enroll today! Every moment that you spend on yourself is a valuable gift to the world. Every gift you give to the world is returned to you ten-fold.

Be Blessed!
Iyanla

I often say to people, "Tell your story because your story will heal you and, it will heal someone else."

IF YOU HAVE A STORY, THEN YOU HAVE THE POTENTIAL TO BE A HEALER, A TEACHER, A MORE CONSCIOUS, PRODUCTIVE INDIVIDUAL

Our Curriculum

The curriculum of the Inner Visions Institute for Spiritual Development has its foundation in the exploration of universal spiritual laws and principles.

The principles are the basis for:

- Identifying and clearing unconscious or non-productive thought and behavior patterns;
- Developing a spiritual consciousness and embracing a spiritual identity;
- Developing an understanding of how your unique identity has been impacted and enhanced by life experiences;
- Balancing the demands of external or physical life with the desires of the internal or spiritual life.

It is our intention to guide and support our students through the experiential process of remembering and embracing their Divine nature. We believe that the Divine nature of every individual is supported and enhanced through knowledge and integration of universal laws and spiritual principles. What we teach is not new, however, we share with our students a new process and format for incorporating these ancient principles into daily living. Our curriculum provides the student with a first hand knowledge of how to utilize the power of their Divine and spiritual nature as a basis for all of life's experiences. With this understanding, students are empowered and prepared to make better choices resulting in a more fulfilling life.

Our Schedule

Inner Visions Institute understands that today's students need a program that will accommodate both distance and time. Our program begins in July with an intensive one week program orientation in a wooded retreat setting that enhances spiritual exploration and development. Students leave the summer intensive inspired and equipped with home assignments for continued summer study. Beginning October, and continuing through June, classes convene one weekend a month. First year classes are scheduled the first complete weekend of each month. During the weekend, students participate in classes Friday evening through Sunday afternoon.
